5 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
6 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
7 AT TACOMA

8 DEANGELO A. GREEN,

9 Plaintiff,

10 v.

11 MARGARET GILBERT, et al.,

12 Defendants.

CASE NO. 3:17-cv-05898-RBL-DWC

ORDER DIRECTING SERVICE OF CIVIL RIGHTS COMPLAINT

13 This is a civil rights action brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Plaintiff is proceeding
14 with this action pro se and in forma pauperis. Plaintiff is currently incarcerated at the Airway 15 Heights Corrections Center and is subject to the Court's Prisoner E-Filing Initiative pursuant to 16 General Order 06-16. The Court, having reviewed Plaintiff's Third Amended Complaint, hereby 17 ORDERS as follows:

18 (1) Service by Clerk

19 The Clerk has already perfected service on Defendants Margaret Gilbert and Michael 20 Gleason, and those Defendants have filed waivers of service. Dkts. 25-27.

21 However, in his Third Amended Complaint, Plaintiff has included the following
22 additional Defendants: "Clearance Kilwein," corrections officer at the Stafford Creek 23

1 Corrections Center (“SCCC”); Richard D. Boling, corrections officer at SCCC; Richard W.
2 Estes, corrections officer at SCCC; and “A. Rothwell,” corrections officer at SCCC.

3 The Clerk is directed to send the following to the above named defendants by email: a 4 copy of plaintiff’s complaint, a copy of this Order, a copy of the notice of lawsuit and request for 5 waiver of service of summons, and a waiver of service of summons.

6 Plaintiff has also named Sergeant “John Doe,” corrections officer at SCCC, as a 7 defendant. However, the Clerk cannot attempt service until Plaintiff has provided additional 8 identifying information.

9 (2) Response Required

10 Defendant(s) shall have thirty (30) days within which to return the enclosed waiver of 11 service of summons. A defendant who timely returns the signed waiver shall have sixty (60) 12 days after the date designated on the notice of lawsuit to file and serve an answer to the 13 complaint or a motion permitted under Rule 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

14 A defendant who fails to timely return the signed waiver will be personally served with a 15 summons and complaint, and may be required to pay the full costs of such service, pursuant to 16 Rule 4(d)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. A defendant who has been personally 17 served shall file an answer or motion permitted under Rule 12 within thirty (30) days after 18 service.

19 (3) Filing and Service by Parties, Generally

20 All attorneys admitted to practice before this Court are required to file documents
21 electronically via the Court’s CM/ECF system. Counsel are directed to the Court’s website, 22 www.wawd.uscourts.gov, for a detailed description of the requirements for filing via CM/ECF.

1 Plaintiff shall file all documents electronically. All filings must indicate in the upper right hand 2 corner the name of the magistrate judge to whom the document is directed.

3 Any document filed with the Court must be accompanied by proof that it has been served
4 upon all parties that have entered a notice of appearance in the underlying matter. Plaintiffs 5 subject to the Court's E-Filing Initiative shall indicate the date the document is submitted for e-6 filing as the date of service.

7 (4) Non-State Defendants

8 As a registered user of the Court's electronic filing system, you must accept electronic 9 service of all court filings (except original service of a complaint) by prisoner litigants housed at 10 facilities actively engaged in the Prisoner E-Filing Initiative. Prisoner litigants incarcerated at 11 facilities actively engaged in the Prisoner E-Filing Initiative are no longer required to serve their 12 court filings on the Court or defendants by mail. Service by mail of your court filings to prison
13 litigants housed in facilities actively engaged in the Prisoner E-Filing Initiative is also no longer 14 required.

15 (5) Motions, Generally

16 Any request for court action shall be set forth in a motion, properly filed and served.
17 Pursuant to LCR 7(b), any argument being offered in support of a motion shall be submitted as a 18 part of the motion itself and not in a separate document. The motion shall include in its caption 19 (immediately below the title of the motion) a designation of the date the motion is to be noted for 20 consideration upon the Court's motion calendar.

21 Stipulated and agreed motions, motions to file over-length motions or briefs, motions for 22 reconsideration, joint submissions pursuant to the option procedure established in LCR 37(a)(2), 23 motions for default, requests for the clerk to enter default judgment, and motions for the court to

1 enter default judgment where the opposing party has not appeared shall be noted for 2 consideration on the day they are filed. See LCR 7(d)(1). All other non-dispositive motions
3 shall be noted for consideration no earlier than the third Friday following filing and service of the 4 motion. See LCR 7(d)(3). All dispositive motions shall be noted for consideration no earlier
5 than the fourth Friday following filing and service of the motion. Id.

6 For electronic filers, all briefs and affidavits in opposition to either a dispositive or non-7 dispositive motion shall be filed and served not later than 11:59 p.m. on the Monday 8 immediately preceding the date designated for consideration of the motion.

9 The party making the motion may electronically file and serve not later than 11:59 p.m.
10 on the date designated for consideration of the motion, a reply to the opposing party's briefs and 11 affidavits.

12 (6) Motions to Dismiss and Motions for Summary Judgment

13 Parties filing motions to dismiss pursuant to Rule 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil 14 Procedure and motions for summary judgment pursuant to Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil 15 Procedure should acquaint themselves with those rules. As noted above, these motions shall be 16 noted for consideration no earlier than the fourth Friday following filing and service of the 17 motion.

18 Defendants filing motions to dismiss based on a failure to exhaust or motions for 19 summary judgment are advised that they MUST serve a Rand notice concurrently with motions to 20 dismiss based on a failure to exhaust and motions for summary judgment so that pro se prisoner 21 plaintiffs will have fair, timely and adequate notice of what is required of them in order to 22 oppose those motions. Woods v. Carey, 684 F.3d 934, 941 (9th Cir. 2012). The Ninth Circuit 23 has set forth model language for such notices:

1 A motion for summary judgment under Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of 2 Civil Procedure will, if granted, end your case.

3 Rule 56 tells you what you must do in order to oppose a motion for summary
4 judgment. Generally, summary judgment must be granted when there is no 5 genuine issue of material fact – that is, if there is no real dispute about any 6 fact that would affect the result of your case, the party who asked for 7 summary judgment is entitled to judgment as a matter of law, which will 8 end your case. When a party you are suing makes a motion for summary 9 judgment that is properly supported by declarations (or other sworn 10 testimony), you cannot simply rely on what your complaint says. Instead, 11 you must set out specific facts in declarations, depositions, answers to 12 interrogatories, or authenticated documents, as provided in Rule 56(e), 13 that contradict the facts shown in the defendant's declarations and 14 documents and show that there is a genuine issue of material fact for 15 trial. If you do not submit your own evidence in opposition, summary
16 judgment, if appropriate, may be entered against you. If summary
17 judgment is granted, your case will be dismissed and there will be no 18 trial.

11 Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 963 (9th Cir. 1998) (emphasis added).

12 Defendants who fail to file and serve the required Rand notice on plaintiff may have their 13 motion stricken from the Court's calendar with leave to re-file.

14 (7) Direct Communications with District Judge or Magistrate Judge

15 No direct communication is to take place with the District Judge or Magistrate Judge with 16 regard to this case. All relevant information and papers are to be directed to the Clerk.

17 (8) The Clerk is directed to send copies of this Order and of the Court's pro se
18 instruction sheet to plaintiff. The Clerk is further directed send a copy of this Order and a 19 courtesy copy of plaintiff's complaint to Washington Attorney General's Office, by email.

20 Dated this 30th day of May, 2018.
